BOG EXEC OFFICER HEADS FOR THE HILLS...of West Virginia. Dr. BEN L. MORTON, the able and dedicated Executive Officer of the Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities submitted his resignation to the Board Thursday (May 16) to take the position of Chancellor of the West Virginia Board of Regents effective July 1. Dr. MORTON assumed the BOG position in September, 1970. He has been invaluable in advising and assisting the development of GSU within the BOG system. As Chief Executive Officer for all state-supported institutions of higher education in West Virginia, he will have responsibility for two universities, eight 4-year colleges, a graduate college and three community colleges. And the BOG system will be all the poorer.

BENEFIT GOLD TOURNEY RESULTS...The May 5 golf tournament, raising money for the GSU Child Day Care Center, produced these winners:

Low gross: 1. OWEN GROVES 2. GEORGE DOUGLAS 3. JOE WALKER

Low net: 1. OTIS LAWRENCE 2. TOM DORKE 3. NATHAN KEITH

Longest drive went to TOM DORKE. In addition, 20 door prizes were given away. A copy of the scores of all players is available through the office of VERONICA KEETHERS, C3402, next to the Student Assistant Dean in CHLD.
